

ANNUAL MEETING

Columbus, Ohio
October 1-3, 2017

EXPLORE. EMPOWER. ENRICH.

KEYNOTE

Henry Winkler

Winkler's portrayal of The Fonz for 10 seasons on the Happy Days made him one of the most recognized actors in the world. He won two consecutive Golden Globes Awards for Best Actor in a Comedy Series and three Emmy Nominations in the same category. He was also honored with a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

At the podium, audiences always leave Henry's presentations inspired and entertained. Groups of all ages learn from Henry's speeches, through humorous anecdotes and inspirational life lessons about overcoming adversity. His passion for supporting others is the result of a lifetime struggle with undiagnosed dyslexia. Henry has worked tirelessly to bring awareness and support to children who learn differently by advocating for changes on the educational system and informing parents and teachers.

Bonnie St. John

Despite having her right leg amputated at age five, Bonnie St. John became the first ever African-American to win medals in Winter Olympic competition, taking home a silver and two bronze medals in downhill events at the 1984 Paralympics. In recognition of this historic achievement, St. John was quoted on millions of Starbucks coffee cups and was honored at the White House by President George W. Bush.

Today, St. John travels the globe as a leadership consultant, keynote speaker and facilitator for international summit conferences for senior-level executives. She frequently donates personal appearances to schools, homeless shelters, community groups and other organizations in hundreds of locations while traveling for corporate clients. The celebrated author of six books travels around the world, with her daughter, fascinating women leaders, women's rights activists, and many more.

Mel Robbins

Mel Robbins is best known for delivering one of the most popular TED Talks in the world: "How To Stop Screwing Yourself Over". Mel is a powerful keynote speaker who jumps into the audience; creating motivational experiences with unforgettable engagement, surprising research, vivid imagery, original videos and music.

When she's not on stage, Mel is on TV or trending on social media for her captivating analysis about the biggest stories of our time. She's an award-winning on-air analyst for CNN and drives millions of page views for CNN.com as one of their most prolific opinion writers. She's been named "America's Outstanding Talk Show Host" by The Gracie Awards and has hosted original shows for A&E, Fox, and Cox Media. She's appeared as an expert on a wide range of talk shows, from Oprah to Dr. Phil, Fox News to Good Morning America.
